SPEAKER

Vinod Patel is Professor in Diabetes and Clinical Skills at Warwick Medical School, University of Warwick. He is also Honorary Consultant Physician in Endocrinology and Diabetes, Acute Medicine and Medical Obstetrics at the George Eliot Hospital NHS Trust in Nuneaton, Warwickshire and Clinical Director for Diabetes for NHS England and Improvement (West Midlands). His specialist area of research was prevention of diabetic complications. He is jointly qualified in Hospital Medicine and General Practice and has this has allowed him to work relatively seamlessly across the primary care/secondary care interface and improve effectiveness in delivery of diabetes care for the local Community.

He has a passion for clinical diabetes care. His Diabetes Care Team was instrumental in developing the “Alphabet Strategy” for patient-centred, evidence-based, multi-professional diabetes care. This preventative and treatment-orientated strategy has been taught in numerous courses and seminars across UK with multiple international presentations at conferences.

Astra Zeneca have supported the set up and organisation of this meeting via sponsorship. They have had no input into the content of the speaker session.
